

Brown University Community Support Call

Our hearts are with Brown University students, staff, parents and alumni as you process the trauma and grief from the horrific shooting on December 13, 2025. Everytown for Gun Safety Support Fund will hold a virtual community support call on Friday, December 19 from Noon - 1pm ET in order to provide a sense of connection and community following the tragedy.

WHAT TO EXPECT

Join us for a virtual call designed to acknowledge the recent tragedy, share information on how trauma from the incident may impact you, and share resources and strategies to care for yourself and your loved ones. Participation is free and completely optional. Anyone who has been personally impacted by the shooting may attend. This may include people who witnessed the shooting, loved ones of people directly impacted by the shooting, and broader community members navigating the trauma of the tragedy.
